Weekly Bible Reflections

"Then he asked them, 'Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?' (Mark 4:40)

Do you really trust God? Is God your first choice or last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday or do you live the Gospel message every day of the week? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now, open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him every day. Move your discipleship from head knowledge to heart knowledge.

When we face storms in our own lives, we can remember Jesus' power. Just as He calmed the sea for the disciples, He can bring peace to our troubled hearts. We only need to trust Him and have faith. Paul's letter to the Corinthians tells us that Christ's love changes us. We no longer live for ourselves, but for Him. In Christ, we become new creations, leaving our old ways behind. This new life in Christ is full of hope and promise. When we trust in His love, we can face any storm with courage. We know that He is with us, guiding and protecting us. Lord, help us to trust in Your power and love. When we face life's storms, remind us that You are with us. Calm our fears and give us peace. Help us to live as new creations in Christ, showing Your love to others. Amen.

Reflection Questions for the Week

What storms in your life do you need to bring to Jesus?
How does remembering God's control over creation give you peace?
How can you show Christ's love to others in your community?
