Little Francis and the Leper (Paperback)

Parishioner Recommended: "Beautifully written poem crafted over 12 easy-read pages that will touch your heart. The story unfolds with its redeeming message and simple colorful illustrations, and young children will respond to the gentle rhythm of the poetry: "And God said, 'Francis, I'm glad you now see...that loving others is how you love me.'" An outstanding read-to-me for your preschooler.

Weekly Bible Reflections

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." (Matthew 23:12)

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions is the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety and depression than ever before. The key to a happy life is relationship. Relationship with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

The second reading underscores the profound impact of sincere and caring relationships in spreading the message of faith. It highlights how the apostles, like a mother caring for her children, shared not only the Gospel but also their lives with the Thessalonians. They didn't seek material gain or praise but showed genuine love and concern, becoming a model for others. The verse also emphasizes that when they received the word, the Thessalonians recognized it as God's message, not just human words. This underscores the transformative power of authentic, heartfelt communication. In our lives, it's a reminder to share our faith with sincerity, like a mother's love, and to be receptive to God's message, allowing it to deeply affect us. It's about genuine connections and the recognition of divine truth in simple, everyday interactions.

Reflection Questions for the Week

Is there someone in my circle who needs to hear about God's love today?
How can I convey the message of faith through genuine, heartfelt connections?
Am I receptive to God's message in my life, allowing it to deeply affect me?
